VIRGINIA BOYS RESPOND TO CALL

Farewell to the Washington Guards at Fredericksburg.

LEE SHAKES THE HANDS OF ALL.

The Old Dominion Guard of Portsmouth Will Come To-day-Huntington Rifles Will Also Swell the Ranks of Camp Lee.

PREDERICKSBURG, VA., May 14 --Special.-This has been a day long to be remembered in battle-scared Fredericksburg. The departure of the Washington Guards for Camp Lee, Richmond, aroused the greatest enthusiasm ever witnessed here on any occasion.

Promptly at 12 o'clock the company numbering ninety-four men, marched from their armory commanded by Captain M. B. Rowe, Lieutenant F. H. Revere, and Lieutenant R. S. Knox, and Revere, and Lieutemant R. S. Knox, and headed by Bowering's Hand. The stores were heautifully decorated and thronged with people. At the depot fully five thousand people were gathered to cheer the men and bid them good bye.

LEE SHAKES HANDS.

While the company was waiting at the depot for the special train, which also brought the Alexandria company, General Frizhugh Lee arrived from Washington. General Lee shook hands with each one of the men and congratulated them on their fine appearance. The company carries some of the best young men of the city all born and raised in or near Fredericksburg, and naturally identified with the city's interests, but they almost to a man remembered the words of Gen. R. E. Lee, that "duty was the noblest R. E. Lee, that "duty was the noblest word in the English language," and though making many sacrifices were wil-ing to go to the front.

THE PETERSBURG GRAYS.

HEALTHY OLD AGE

Attained by the Use of the Great Catarrh Remedy, Ре-ги-па.

The following is a letter written by an old man and his wife. They were both alling, and did not know what to use. They received one of Dr. Hartman's books entitled "The Ills of Life." and after reading it concluded to try Dr. Hartman's medicines. The following is their story in their own words: "I had been troubled with the after-"I had been troubled with the after-effects of la grippe, which affected my head and stomach. I did not know

CAMP WARBURTON.

An Artillery Company with Good Material-Rush Work Over. NEWPORT NEWS, VA., May 14.-Special.-Batteries A and C, of the Pennsylvania National Guard, which were ordered here this week, arriving Thursday morning, are now comfortably quartered at Camp Warburton above the shipyard with Captain Barclay H. Warburton, senior officer, in command. These troops were ordered here to protect the government work at the shipyard. Posts have been established in the works and the plant is guarded day and night. Battery A comes from Philadelphia and is made up of some of the most prominent business men of the Quaker City. Captain Warburton is the son-in-law of ex-Postmaster-General John Wannamaker and proprietor of the Philadelphia Evening Telegram, Battery C halls from Phoenixrille, Pa.

Owing to the dense fog this morning the auxiliary cruiser St. Paul, Captain Sigshee, the hero of the ill-starred Maine, commanding, and the cruiser New Orleans did not sail at daybreak to join the Flying Squadron, which put to sea yesterday afternoon under sealed orders, going it is presumed to reinforce Admiral Sampson at Porto Rico. The ships sailed this afternoon. morning, are now comfortably quartered this afternoon.

The rush work at the shipyard is about over. To-day, as is the custom during the summer months, the men were given a haif holiday. Work on the auxiliary cruisers Dixle and Yosemite has been completed and the vessels are expected to sail Monday afternoon.

HEROIC ENSIGN'S FUNERAL.

Pound Party and Apron-Hemming. On the 19th of May there will be given pound party and apron hemming at a pound party and apron hemming at the Woman's Christian Association for the benefit of the lunch room. The rooms will be open to receive pounds from 12 until 10 P. M. In the afternoon from 4 to 5, there will be an entertainment for the children, with an amusing pro-gramme, which will delight them. The apron beaming will take place at thelegramme, which will delight them. The apron hemming will take place at night-from 8 to 10—when three prizes will be awarded—one for the most rapid, one for the best and one for the poorest. With regard to the pound party, which is the first ever given at the association, all gifts of groceries, however small, will be welcomed heartly. The lunch room, under the direction of a very earenst and intelligent committee, is becoming more and more popular, and it is the purpose of that committee not to stop short of excellence.

MUSICAL AND LITERARY NOTES.

Gounod will always be best known as the author of "Faust." But with all the beauty and popularity of that work it was not well received at first. Chappell & Co., the London publishers, bought the right of English performance from Gou-nod for $300. It lay on their shelves for some time, until one day Colonel Maple-son, husband of the great prima donna, Titlens, and impresario of her Majesty's son, husband of the great prima domain. Titiens, and impresario of her Majesty's Opera House, being at his wits' end for something new and attractive to produce, turned for assistance to his friend. Tom Chappell, head of the firm of Chappell & Co. This gentleman handed the Colonel the manuscript of "Faust," remarking that its merits, if it had any, remained to be discovered. Colonel Mapleson carefully removed the cobwebs and dust from the work. In a few weeks the public were wild with delight, and Gounod's name as a composer of the highest order was widely proclaimed.

In regard to the great advancement of musical art, musicians will hold the fol-lowing: "The world has moved. Our ears have become advanced. We retain and compare musical impressions over a wider range of relationship than was the case a generation ago. Handel is antiquated; Bach still lives, but we can enjoy his works only as exceptions to our current diet; Hayden symphonies sound like string quartets played a trifle large and seasoned with a few notes of trumpets and woodwind. Mozart in feminine phrase and woodwind. Mozart in feminine phrases is "too sweet for any use;" and Mendelssohn has departed to the piace where good boys go. We have left to us the over-worked immortal nine of Beethoven (now rather shrunk to about five), and two of Schunert; we tolerate Schumann for the sake of his ideas. We hear Tschalkowsky because he is a master in his way. But the greatest of tone-poets since Beethoven appears to be Brahms. (Math-

Who Are Willing to Pay When Convinced of Cure.

Free Medical Treatment

for Weak Men

A scientific combined medical and mechanical cure has been discovered for "Weakness of Men." Its success has been so startling that the proprietors now amounce that they will send it on trial—remedies and appliance—withing advance payment—on any honest man. If not all that is claimed—all you wish—send it back—that ends it—pay nothing!

No such ofter was ever made in good faith before; we believe no other remedy would stand such a test.

This combined treatment cures quickly, thoroughly and forever all effects of early evil habits, later excesses, overwork, worry, etc. It creates health, strength, vitality, sustaining powers and restores weak and undeveloped portions to natural dimensions and functions.

Any man writing in earnest will receive description, particulars and references in a plain scaled envelope. Professional confidence. No deception nor imposition of any nature. A national reputation ERIE MEDICAL CO. Buffalo. N. V.
